Most mornings are pretty similar for me, and I like it that way. A simple routine helps me start the day calmly. First / Too, I wake up around 7 a.m. and check my phone for a moment. At the end / Then, I go to the kitchen and / like make a cup of coffee. First / Next, while the coffee is getting ready, I prepare something small to eat. Breakfast is my favorite part of the morning. Sometimes I have toast, and other times I eat yogurt with fruit. I also / and like trying different recipes, and I often add fruit, as well / such as bananas or strawberries. For instance / In addition, I keep small snacks in my bag, like / plus almonds or cereal bars.

Finally / After that, I sit by the window and enjoy a quiet moment before work. The building is usually quiet in the mornings. I enjoy the silence, and the calm start helps me feel relaxed, too / like. The peaceful atmosphere makes my mornings feel special for example / as well. Finally / Such as, once I finish my coffee, I get dressed and leave the house.

At work, my day gets busy quickly. I have several things to do. And / For example, I check my emails and look at my schedule. For instance / Too, yesterday I had three meetings before 10 a.m. Then / At the end of the morning, I try to take a short break before continuing with the rest of the day.
