A Rainy Morning

It was raining heavily that morning, so / to I decided not to leave the house. I didn't go to work so that / because the streets were flooded, and everything felt slower than usual. Since / Therefore I suddenly had free time, I made myself a cup of coffee and sat by the window, watching the rain fall.

I wanted to relax for a while, as / so I turned on some soft music and enjoyed the quiet moment. I stayed inside to / as a result rest a bit and clear my mind before the day moved on.

As a result / Because, the morning felt calmer than usual. Later, I planned my week in order to / therefore feel more organized, and I called a friend so that / to we could talk and catch up.
