Supervisor: Good morning! You must be Ricardo. Welcome to the warehouse / inventory team.

Ricardo: Good morning! Yes, that's me. Thank you.

Supervisor: Have you worked in a warehouse before?

Ricardo: Yes, a little. I worked in a small shelf / factory before, but this is my first time in a large warehouse.

Supervisor: No problem. I'll show you around. First, your shift / overtime today is from eight to four thirty.

Ricardo: Okay. Eight to four thirty.

Supervisor: Good. Your first tape / break is at ten, and lunch is at twelve thirty.

Ricardo: Got it.

Supervisor: Before we start, make sure you wear your safety vest / sunglasses, gloves, and sandals / steel-toed boots.

Ricardo: I have my boots and hats / gloves. Where can I get a safety vest?

Supervisor: There are extra vests near the office. I'll get one for you.

Ricardo: Thank you.

Supervisor: Today, we're preparing orders / shipments for delivery. First, you'll scan / load the tickets / label on each package.

Ricardo: Okay. Scan the label first.

Supervisor: Exactly. Then put the package / bags on the correct pallet / rack.

Ricardo: How do I know which pallet is correct?

Supervisor: Good question. Look at the number on the label. The pallet number is here.

Ricardo: Oh, I see it now.

Supervisor: Perfect. If a package is damaged / far, don't move it. Tell me or another teacher / supervisor.

Ricardo: Okay. If it's damaged, I should tell you.

Supervisor: That's right. Also, be careful near the distribution center / loading dock. Trucks / bikes come in and out all day.

Ricardo: Got it. I'll be careful.

Supervisor: And watch out for the cart / forklift. The drivers move quickly, so always look both ways before you cross.

Ricardo: Watch out for the forklift. Okay.

Supervisor: Some boxes / containers are fragile / heavy. Don't carry anything too heavy by yourself. Ask a classmate / coworker for help.

Ricardo: Okay. I don't want to hurt my back.

Supervisor: Exactly. Lift / stack with your legs, not your back.

Ricardo: Safety first.

Supervisor: That's what we like to hear. Ready to start?

Ricardo: Yes, I'm ready.

Supervisor: Great. Let's get to work.

Ricardo: Let's go!
